

Cyber Security

With the increased use of the Internet for browsing, researching, information gathering, and e-commerce, information and cyber security has become a growing concern for businesses throughout our global economy. This event recognizes FBLA members who understand security needs for technology.

ELIGIBILITY

Each district may be represented by two participants. The participants must qualify as an active FBLA member to be eligible for this event.

REGULATIONS

1. An online entry must be submitted by March 17.
2. Participants may not have entered this event at a previous leadership conference.
3. A participant who fails to report on time for the event may be DISQUALIFIED.
4. Participants must adhere to the dress code approved by the executive council.

PROCEDURES

1. Participants report to the supervisor of the event at the location designated in the program five minutes prior to starting time.
2. One hour is allowed for the entire event including the giving of instructions and the distribution and pickup of tests.
3. The test is focused on firewalls, intrusion detection, network and physical security, cryptography, public key, authentication, computer attacks, e-mail security, disaster recovery and forensics security. Non-graphing calculators will be provided.
4. Tests will be administered by authorized individuals as indicated on the State Leadership conference registration form.

JUDGING

Results are based on the number of correct items.

The participant with the greatest number of correct answers is the winner.

Ties will be broken based on the order in which the tests were turned in. The test turned in the earliest will be the winner among those tied for a given position.

Judges identify the ranks of the participants on a winners' report sheet.

Cyber Security Continued

Graded papers are NOT returned to participants or advisers.

AWARDS

Plaques are presented to the winners of first through fifth places as long as finances are available. Certificates are given to participants winning sixth through tenth places.

REPRESENTATION AT NATIONAL

The first, second, and third place winners are entitled to represent the state chapter at the National Leadership Conference.
